Monday

August 9

6:00-9:00 pm

Open auditions will be held at the Bettenhausen Recreation Center, 8125 W. 171st Street in Tinley Park. Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script.

Set in the Brighton Beach section of Brooklyn, New York in 1937, this coming-of-age comedy focuses on Eugene Morris Jerome, a Polish-Jewish teenager who searches for his identity as he tries to deal with his family, including his older brother Stanley, his parents Kate and Jack, as well as Kate’s sister Blanche and her two daughters, Nora and Laurie.

Performances will be held October 15-17 at the Park District’s new theater at McCarthy Park. Rehearsals will be held on evenings and weekends beginning in late August.
